

JCI Data Transfer Terms

EU Standard Contractual Clauses – Controller to Controller

To the extent that you transfer personal data from the European Economic Area (“EEA”) or Switzerland to JCI located outside of the EEA or Switzerland, which each party acting as a controller, the parties will be deemed to have entered into the standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission Implementing Decision (EU) 2021/914 of 4 June 2021 available at http://data.europa.eu/eli/dec_impl/2021/914/oj (“2021 EU SCCs”) in respect of such transfer, whereby you are the “data exporter,” JCI is the “data importer,” Module One applies, Modules Two, Three and Four, the footnotes, Clause 11(a) Option and Clause 17 Option 1 are omitted, the “competent supervisory authority” is that in the country where the data exporter is established, and the content of the applicable annexes corresponds to the respective content of the Agreement, unless the parties may rely on an alternative transfer mechanism or basis under the data protection laws. The 2021 EU SCCs are governed by the law of the country where the data exporter is established. Any dispute arising from the 2021 EU SCCs shall be resolved by the courts of the country where the data exporter is established. To the extent there is any conflict between the terms of the Agreement and the 2021 EU SCCs, the 2021 EU SCCs will prevail.

UK Standard Contractual Clauses – Controller to Controller

To the extent that you transfer personal data from the United Kingdom (“UK”) to JCI located outside the UK, with each party acting as a controller, the parties will be deemed to have entered into the standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission Decision 2004/915/EC of 27 December 2004 available at <http://data.europa.eu/eli/dec/2004/915/oj> (“Clauses”) in respect of such transfer, whereby you are the “data exporter,” JCI is the “data importer,” any optional clauses are omitted, and the content of the appendices corresponds to the respective content of the Agreement, unless the parties may rely on an alternative transfer mechanism or basis under the data protection laws. The Clauses are governed by the laws of England and Wales. All references in the Clauses to “Union,” “EU,” “Member State” and their laws are replaced with “UK” and the equivalent UK laws. Any dispute arising from the Clauses shall be resolved by the courts of England and Wales. To the extent there is any conflict between the terms of the Agreement and the Clauses, the Clauses will prevail.

International Transfer of Personal Data from USA

To the extent that you transfer personal information from the United State (“USA”) to JCI located outside the USA, JCI will comply with the principles and the rights of the data subject and the regime of data protection provided under the US federal laws and state laws, including but not limited to California Consumer Privacy Act (“CCPA”), Consumer Data Protection Act (“CDPA”), etc., unless the parties may rely on an alternative transfer mechanism or basis under the data protection laws.

International Transfer of Personal Data from Brazil

To the extent that you transfer personal information from Brazil to JCI located outside Brazil, JCI will comply with the principles and the rights of the data subject and the regime of data protection provided under the Brazilian General Data Protection Law, nº 13.709 of 2018 (Lei Geral de Proteção de Dados Pessoais) (LGPD), unless the parties may rely on an alternative transfer mechanism or basis under the data protection laws.